

DR. V'S TOP 3 TIPS FOR SUCCESS

➔ Explore YOU@SOU

YOU@SOU is our digital wellbeing portal to help students succeed in life and school. Set goals, explore campus and online resources, and take quizzes to see what areas you have that may benefit from extra attention. YOU@SOU focuses on three key areas: Success, Thrive, and Matter.

A NOTE FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

➔ Build Community

Student Clubs and Organizations serve as a means for connecting with other students and enhancing the college experience.

SOU's Student Activities houses over 60 student clubs and organizations, for the most up-to-date information on SOU events visit sou.edu/presence.

Welcome to Southern Oregon University. We are thrilled to have you join the Raider family. SOU is a special place and during your time here I hope you push yourself to try new things, meet new people, and expand your mind.

This handbook has been developed with you in mind. The goal is to have the information you need in one easy location. I encourage you to read through the handbook, click on the links, and explore all of the supportive and engagement opportunities available to you. We expect each member of the Raider family to become familiar with the community standards and to assume responsibility for making decisions governing their behavior within the community.

➔ Come say Hi!

Stop by and say hello at SU 321, or send an email at dos@sou.edu with any questions or concerns you may have while at SOU.

Be sure to explore the resources and support the Dean of Students Office has for SOU students by visiting dos.sou.edu.

If you experience any problems, concerns, or challenges during your time at SOU, the Dean's office is a good place to start if you can't figure out what to do, where to go, or who to ask. All of us (faculty and staff) are here to support and encourage you. Let us know how we can help.

Have a fantastic year!

Dr. Carrie Vath, Dean of Students at SOU
